

The Norma (Swaigood) Stark Memory Garden and Labyrinth Foundation Garden Open from Dawn to Dusk

Group Visits

The Foundation's mission is to promote and maintain the garden and labyrinth as a sanctuary for peace, prayer, meditation and healing.

The Foundation's purpose is to operate exclusively for charitable, educational and civic purposes, providing a facility for the enjoyment and benefit of the public.

No business, organization or individual shall charge fees or profit from the use of the garden and labyrinth. Furthermore, any event or gathering at the Norma (Swaigood) Stark Memory Garden and Labyrinth cannot be used to promote any individual, business, group, or organization.

An event is any group of five or more. Reservations for groups are required. Based on the governor's recommendations, we appreciate your best judgment for social distancing and wearing a mask.

Confirm a reservation at least a week in advance by calling (419) 410-2496
